

Respectful Behaviour

As a Deakin student, you can expect a safe and respectful learning environment.

Please observe the following guidelines in all your behaviour with fellow students and University staff. These guidelines will assist to ensure respectful interactions, which is expected under the terms of your enrolment.

Your responsibilities at Deakin:

- Treat your fellow students and colleagues with dignity and respect.
- Avoid any behaviour that may be unlawful or discriminatory.
- Avoid any behaviour that may offend, humiliate or cause harm to others.
- Ensure that everyone can participate fully in all aspects of University life.

You have a right to:

- Be respected and valued at Deakin regardless of your personal characteristics or background.
- Have opportunities to reach your full potential and participate in all aspects of University life, work and study in an environment free from discrimination and sexual harm (including sexual harassment and sexual assault).

Please read the University's Student Code of Conduct so that you are familiar with your rights and responsibilities.